Description

How we do it

CUBE Team believes and operates with the goal of enabling easy access to business data for everyone, from individuals to legal entities. Current business surrounding is based on data flow and we want to adjust it for our modernized users.

We organize data to be easily accessible by anyone who wants to improve their business.

CUBE Team provides access to data from publicly available, reliable and validated sources. Using the new technologies and expertise of our team, we standardize and present the data in such a way that they are more useful and accessible 24/7. Access is enabled through our database, portal, or API service. We are working on a market for around 50 million people.
